

WEATHER IS HARD ON EGGS

Warm Spell Plays Havoc with Them and They Do Not Keep Long.

BUTTER UP HALF OF A CENT

Sugar Takes Rise on Wholesale Market and Will Likely Go Up on Retail Counter Within Another Week—Meats Advance.

The hot weather has played havoc with fresh eggs. While the price of eggs is holding about the same, in the neighborhood of 22 cents retail in Omaha, the quality has gone down somewhat since the warm weather began. Some eggs are spoiled and others have lost their original sweetness through it. Some of them have that slightly strong taste, peculiar to storage eggs, although they may never have been near a cold storage plant.

Butter is up a half cent this week. Wax beans are on the market at 10 cents a pound. Egg plant is on the market at 2 1/2 cents apiece. Tomatoes are still coming in in large quantities from Florida and are selling at 10 cents a pound.

Sugar is still going up on the wholesale market, although the retailers are still giving twenty-two pounds for a dollar. Within a week it is predicted that only twenty-one pounds will be sold for a dollar.

New potatoes have come down to 40 cents a peck, while a week or two ago they were selling for 60 cents a peck. This is a reduction of 33 per cent in a little over a week. The old potatoes will soon be off the market. At King of Hayden Bros. grocery department predicts that the next two weeks will see the end of the old potatoes in the Omaha market.

Beef is up a dollar a hundred pounds. Number one lambs are exceedingly scarce and hard to get. Lambs are up 60 cents a hundred. Hams and bacon are up $1.25 per hundred in the past two days. Chickens are plentiful and selling at a reasonable price for old ones or last year's chickens. The spring chickens, however, are retailing for 45 cents per pound.

Lard is up practically a half cent. This makes it up 40 cents per hundred wholesale.

Upham and C. Louis Meyer. They will meet here delegates of the Rotary clubs of Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and Sioux City and will go in special cars, leaving Omaha June 18.

HOLDUP FILM QUITE AN ATTRACTION AT "MOVIES"

The hotel clerks' "hold-up" film, showing the fake robbery staged in River-view park for the entertainment of visiting guests, started a regular run at Omaha movie houses this week. It was at the Hipp Thursday, will be at the Lothrop until Saturday night, and then will return to the downtown district and be shown at the Farnam Sunday.

FONTENELLE STEEL IS NOW UP FOUR STORIES

Steel work on the new Fontenelle hotel building has now reached the fourth story, about 100 feet above the sidewalk. Shipments of steel from the mills at Gary have been prompt this week, so the construction work has proceeded rapidly.
